SPANISH COOKING CLASSES

In Spain, Gastronomy is written in capital letters. In the last few years, the whole world has been talking about Spanish Gastronomy, and some global experts consider it a world leader for its creativity, innovative capacity, diversity and vitality. Sunshine, Sangria, Flamenco and tapas cuisine are all synonymous of Spain.

Why not take home both the Spanish language and some Spanish culture so that you can feel like you are on holiday every day of the year.

What better way to discover the local culture than through its cuisine?

The Spanish cooking classes will introduce you to famous dishes from the Mediterranean diet, known to be the world's healthiest and characterized by its use of fresh fish, vibrant vegetables, seasonal fruit, beans and legumes, extra virgin olive oil, garlic, fish, seafood, poultry, cheese, yogurt and, of course, wine. You will learn how to make traditional Mediterranean dishes and popular Spanish food such as the Spanish omelet or paella...

SPANISH SPORT CLASSES

In Spain, 68.2% of the population begins playing sports before the age of 15 and 80% of those who play sports do so in more than one way. It can be said that in Spain sports play a fundamental role, and are complemented by a great climate, fantastic private and public athletic facilities and a strong exercise culture.

According to the latest information provided by the Marcet Foundation, backed by the CSD, more than 16 million Spaniards over the age of 14 play some type of sport. The most preferred way to stay fit by Spaniards is exercising at the gym.

The second most popular sport is football (this encompasses all variations of football – football sala, football 7 and 11), followed by swimming, cycling, and running. A fun fact according to a recent statistic reveals that in index terms there are more bicycles than footballs in Spain. In this Spanish Sport Classes, you will be training with locals from Malaga and other international students, where you will have the excellent opportunity to learn the language through sport. It will also give you the opportunity to enhance your sporting skills.

Football (soccer), basketball, cycling, tennis, handball, rhythmic gymnastics and motor sports are some of the most popular sports in Spain, with athletes from each discipline representing the country on a national level.

Figures such as Rafa Nadal in tennis, Fernando Alonso in Formula 1 racing, Marc Márquez in Grand Prix motorcycle racing, the Professional Football league (the first European league in the UEFA ranking system), The ACB League (one of the best basketball leagues in the world), and Alberto Contador in cycling, to name a few. The examples are countless serve as a true reflection of the tradition behind Spanish sports and the variety of different sports played in Spain.
